Welded Aluminum Carriage House Model

The Welded Aluminum Carriage House Model is one of Arm-R-Lite's premiere models with its intricate design features. This model is highly customizable with the ability to specify panel designs, glass type and frame colors. Since 1958, Arm-R-Lite has been consistently manufacturing the Welded Aluminum Carriage House Model and has never compromised on the quality of our doors. Because of this, Arm-R-Lite is able to produce replacement sections for any of our welded models, regardless of purchase date.
